Burgundy

Our new white Macon -Villages 2022 £15.50 per bottle (Gold medal awarded) and Macon Lugny 2022 £17.95 per bottle.

These are two outstanding Macon's from Cave de Lugny, both classic from the superb 2022 vintage. Drinking superbly.

The consistent & underrated new white, Burgundy Ladoix 2022 Domaine Louis Jadot is exceptional value at only £34.00 per bottle.

If Ladoix isn't as well-known as it should be, it is because the small village lies at the bottom of a famous landmark: the hill of Corton. Ladoix is an appellation for still, dry, red, and white wines produced from fruit grown in the commune of Ladoix-Serrigny at the northern end of the Côte de Beaune subregion of Burgundy. It is located just north of Beaune and directly below the eastern slopes of the Corton hill. The latter is the source of the Côte de Beaune's only Grand Cru red wines.

The 2022 Ladoix Le Clou d'Orge (Domaine Gagey) is a wine that will delight readers who prize cut and tension in white, Burgundy. Exhibiting aromas of crisp green apple, citrus zest and wet stones, it's medium to full-bodied, with racy acids and an incisive, tightly wound palate, concluding with a long, chalky finish. Robert Parker Wine Advocate.

Louis Jadot was established in Beaune by founder Louis Henri Denis Jadot in 1859.

White, Burgundy of the month- new release.

Saint Veran 2022 Joseph Drouhin      £306.00 per case 12/1      £25.50 inc vat bottle

A wine that smiles and makes you smile! It is stylistically close to Pouilly-Fuisse, with its golden hue, its greenish reflection, and it's refreshing taste. The aromas are reminiscent of the ripe Chardonnay grape, with subtle notes of musk. A pleasant roundness coats the palate.

Strong buy- Burgundy- Delicious.

Pouilly Fuisse 2022 Domaine Ferret £432.00 per case 12/1 £36.00 per bottle inc vat.

Located in the heart of the Mâconnais, Domaine Ferret has been exploring the richness of Pouilly-Fuisse's terroirs since 1840. The history of the property has been intertwined with that of a series of strong women (who's current incumbent is Audrey Braccini), who have helped raise the profile of the great Chardonnay-based wines from this part of Southern Burgundy.

New purchase from Spain, this fabulous Sauvignon Blanc is being served in all the top restaurants in the Valencia region, Medal awarded.

The Sanz family planted Sauvignon Blanc in the beautiful high altitude Finca La Colina vineyard in 1980. Today, 40 years on this vineyard is producing what is considered by many as Spain's best Sauvignon Blanc.

La Colina Sauvignon Blanc 2022 £216.00 per case 12/1 £18.00 per bottle inc vat

Tasting Notes: Pale yellow, brilliant white wine with intense aromas and full and unctuous on the palate. Slightly glycerous with just the right acidic bite and pleasantly long lasting. Gastronomy: Perfect with grilled or baked fish, a good match for more complex rice dishes with fish serving.

Claret of the month. New stock, direct from the chateau.

50 cases Chateau Beaumont 2016 £215.40 per case 12/1 £17.95 per bottle inc vat

10 cases Magnums £240.00 per case 6 mags £40.00 per magnum inc vat

The 2016 Beaumont has quite a powerful bouquet with dense black fruit, boysenberry and cedar, traces of pencil lead developing with aeration. The palate is medium bodied with fine tannin, quite spicy compared to its peers, then it reins everything back in for what a refined finish is. Classy stuff. Tasted at the Cru Bourgeois tasting in London. Drink 2021 onwards. 91/100 Neil Martin

This solid estate has produced a classic 2016 Château Beaumont with juicy cherry fruits, leafy herbs, and saddle leather notes in its balanced, medium-bodied, straight-up delicious profile. It's ideal for drinking over the coming 5-7 years.

Chateau Teyssier 2018 St Emilion. Probably the best value wine on the right bank, 93/100 James Sucking, available in bottles & magnums.

Expression de Pauillac 2019 available in bottles & Magnums (from a premier Grand Cru Classe estate) the wine is excellent, tasting notes enclosed. Buy Shipped directly from their cellars, Hautes du Tertre 2012 (second wine Chateau du Tertre) Margaux in bottles, mature claret with an excellent rating. Wonderful wine to consume now.

The Reserve de Barton 2018 (second wine Léoville Barton) scored 90/100 Vinous. Tasted recently strong buy.

Chateau Branas Grand Poujeaux 2011- direct from the Château, Moulis en Médoc.

I had the pleasure to taste this wine earlier this year in the UK, not often do I take notice of a wine from the 2011 vintage, but this wine was outstanding, the colour, nose and fruit were all wonderful. On further enquiries to the Chateau, we found out that the wine was selected as the number 1 wine in a blind tasting beating many Cru Classes like Chateau Pontet Canet, Tertre Rotebouef and Beausejour Becot. Tasting was conducted by Neil Martin wine writer.

We have added several new red & white wines from Australia, New Zealand & South Africa. Fine Bordeaux selection 1982-2016.

New additions including wines from Domaine Bouchard red & whites, Burgundies, also new wines from Etienne Guigal Rhone valley

The house Champagne Janisson-Baradon Brut N/V Brut Selection from Epernay continues to win gold medals in Paris each year for quality at £25.00 per bottle. Andre Clouet Rose Champagne at only £29.95 per bottle this delicious rose has a rating of 92/100, also available in magnums.

House champagne.

50 cases Janisson-Baradon House Champagne Brut Selection 12.5%    £300.00 case 12/1    £25.00 inc vat bottle
5 cases Halves 12%    £179.40 case 12 halves    £14.95 inc vat half

The Result of a balanced blend is 50% Pinot Noir and 50% Chardonnay, 30% of this is reserved in oak barrels. The Brut Selection has aged for 3 years in the cellars to acquire full maturity. It's Beautiful golden honey colour with Suttle aromas expressing light notes of biscuit. With flavours of apples, pears, and citrus fruits with a dry finish. This Champagne would be enjoyed throughout a meal or as an aperitif. Three years bottle age.

10 cases Janisson-Baradon Grande Reserve Epernay Magnums 12%    £372.00 case 6/1    £62.00 inc vat mag

Janisson Baradon, established in 1922, produces fine quality Champagnes. Janisson Baradon is a fifth generation of family business based in Epernay. Its champagnes are produced using grapes grown from its own vineyards, which span 22 acres.

The grapes come from three champagne vines in different terrains, which give the champagnes their distinctive taste. The emphasis is very much on quality, and this is reflected in the number of awards that they have won in France. This champagne has 5 years of bottle age.

Expressive wine that makes a good introduction to the house style. Clean veins of minerality support the fruit in this mid-weight, attractive wine. Pears, flowers are nicely layered into the finish. Superb value.

20 cases Andre Clouet Rose Champagne 12%    £359.40 case 12/1    £29.95 inc vat bt
5 cases Magnums 12%    £384.00 case 6/1    £64.00 inc vat mag

Clouet family is a family of winemakers whose origins, as they say, "got lost in the mists of time". Its founder was a printer in the Versailles court of Louis XV and for several generations, their descendants continued this work. This peculiar style " Ancien Regime" on their labels is a tribute to the founder of the house. It took more than two centuries and several generations of Clouet to get plots of vines in the terroir of Bouzy, which remain in the hands of the family of its founder. Bouzy is situated in the southern part of the Mountain of Reims.

The rose Champagne has lively, pink bubbles. Excellent deep colour and a beautiful nose filled with strawberry, raspberry, and almonds. On the palate the champagne is creamy and fruity, excellent with both food and as an aperitif on that special night. Outstanding rose!! 92/100 Stephen Tanzer.

10 cases Pol Roger Blanc de Blanc 2015 12.5% £552.00 per case 6/1 bottles £92.00 bottle inc vat
 Pol Roger's newly released 2015 Brut Blanc de Blancs is very appealing, unwinding in the glass with scents of crisp orchard fruit, citrus zest, sourdough bread, pastry cream and almonds. Medium to full-bodied, taut, and incisive, it's more chiselled than the richer, more concentrated 2012, with racy acids and a gently reductive edge, concluding with chalky grip. This is a real classic in style and should develop beautifully with age on cork. 93/100 WA

10 cases Pol Roger Brut 2018 12.5% £510.00 per case 6/1 bottles £85.00 bottle inc vat
 Alluring aromas of lemon peel, tarte au citron and freshly baked madeleines. With time in the glass, more savoury earth aromas such as roasted hazelnuts and marmalade develop, showcasing the many layers of complexity of this Champagne. On the palate, the wine has a firm backbone of acidity, balanced with the characteristically rich, broad Pinot Noir for which Pol Roger is known.

 1 case Magnums £1380.00 per case 3 mags £460.00 per mag inc vat
 A strong effort in a less-acclaimed vintage, Pol Roger's newly released 2015 Cuvée Sir Winston Churchill opens in the glass with aromas of confit citrus, ripe orchard fruits and dried white flowers mingled with hints of honeycomb, freshly baked bread, and anise. Medium to full-bodied, vinous, and concentrated, with bright acids, chalky structuring extract, and a pinpoint mousse, this inherently rather rich, gastronomic Champagne is quite tightly wound out of the gates and will reward a bit of bottle age. Stylistically, it is somewhat reminiscent of a modern-day version of the 1985.94/100 RP.

5 cases Dom Perignon 2015 12.5% £1200.00 per case 6 bottles £200.00 per bt inc vat
 Disgorged in January 2023, the 2015 Dom Pérignon shows a singular, ethereal profile with aromas of white pepper, iodine, ripe orchard fruits, toast, smoke, herbs and spices. Medium to full-bodied, layered, and structured, it's enveloping and round with a delicate phenolic mid-palate that underlines chalky dry extracts, concluding with a sapid, penetrating finish with gastronomic bitterness. This iteration of Dom Pérignon, though replete with the customary charm and vinous generosity that typify the label, distinguishes itself by its structural delicate austerity and a notably phenolic profile, giving rise to a remarkably linear and well-defined style that diverges markedly from the more familiar expressions of Dom Pérignon. This is a blend of 51% Pinot Noir and 49% Chardonnay with a dosage of 4.5 grams per liter; it will age wonderfully and can be enjoyed now or over the next 20 years. 95/100 WA

Method Champenoise/sparkling wine.

Founded in 1885, Langlois-Chateau have been making wine in the Loire Valley for more than 130 years. In 1973, the estate was bought by the Bollinger Family who recognised the quality of the estate's wines, and Langlois-Chateau have not looked back since. Significant investment by the Bollinger Family within the vineyard and the cellar, alongside sharing their knowledge of the method traditionally way of making sparkling wines, have turned this house into a fantastic option for those who want a Grande Marque standard non-Vintage sparkling wine at the fraction of the price.

With its rich Merlot and structured Cabernet Sauvignon, this wine is open, rich with generous tannins. Black-plum flavours give ripeness to the spicy, full-bodied wine that has good potential.

This wine comes from the oldest wine region in Bordeaux, just across the river from famous estates on the Left Bank.

Overlooking the Gironde Estuary, this amphitheatre of vines forms the La Rose Bellevue vineyard. It is located on the highest point of Saint Palais and its protected rows of vines are grown in mixed soils of fine gravel, sand, and silt. The wine is a very elegant blend of 75% Merlot and 25% Cabernet Sauvignon. The palate is lush with flavours of black currant and black cherry.

(This Chateau is situated next door to Chateau Beychevelle St Julien) Silver Medal award. 50% Cabernet Sauvignon, 50% Merlot Chateau du Raux produces a wine typical of the Médoc—deep in colour, full bodied, seamlessly structured and built for aging. The nose is subtly spicy leading to a round, structured yet elegant palate with bright aromas of fresh berries and hints of cedar and cocoa.

Tasted at the Cru Bourgeois annual tasting, the 2015 Fonreud offers impressive, engaging blackberry and briary scents on the nose, well defined and focused with just a slight reduction that works in its favour. The palate is medium-bodied with firm but fine tannin, plenty of spice-tinged black fruit mixed with graphite and cedar toward the structured finish. I admire the length of this Listrac, and I suspect it will give many years of pleasure. Sign me up! 92/100 Neil Martin

The 2016 Beaumont has quite a powerful bouquet with dense black fruit, boysenberry and cedar, traces of pencil lead developing with aeration. The palate is medium bodied with fine tannin, quite spicy compared to its peers, then it reins everything back in for what a refined finish is. Classy stuff. Tasted at the Cru Bourgeois tasting in London. Drink 2021 onwards. 91/100 Neil Martin

This solid estate has produced a classic 2016 Château Beaumont with juicy cherry fruits, leafy herbs, and saddle leather notes in its balanced, medium-bodied, straight-up delicious profile. It's ideal for drinking over the coming 5-7 years.

50 cases Chateau Fourcas Borie 2016 Cru Bourgeois £234.00 per case 12/1 £19.50 per bottle inc vat

The 2016 Chateau Fourcas-Borie is a blend of 68% Merlot, 21% Cabernet Sauvignon and 11% Petit Verdot, matured for 12 months in 20% new oak and the remainder one year old. I found more precision and intensity on the Fourcas-Borie compared to Bruno's other Lustrac, Ducluzeau, quite floral with cassis and blueberry aromas developing in the glass. The palate is sweet on the entry with noticeable new oak at the moment, though that prudent 20% is totally in sync with the fruit. This is very sleek, silky to the touch with a slight graininess developing on the finish. It has great potential, although it deserves several years in bottle.

Want to buy the best from Lustrac, buy this wine. 92/100 Neil Martin & 92/100 Jeb Dunnock. Drink 2023 onwards.

The Bruno Borie family, which is also the owner of Château Ducru-Beaucaillou 2e Cru Classé in Saint Julien), acquired the Château Fourcas Dumont in 2009 and from then on named it Château Fourcas-Borie.

Note from the Chateau-

Vintage 2011, blind tasting event leading wine journalist Neal Martin asked us in December 2022 to send him at the beginning of the year a bottle of Château Branas Grand Poujeaux 2011 for an article on Bordeaux "ten years in the bottle". When my friend Olivier told me that he is going to a serious 2011 tasting, I asked him to put Branas on the list to get some perspective before sending the bottle off to the UK, where Neal Martin of Vinous is based.

Such a pleasant surprise when Olivier sent me the message and his FB posting that Branas was unanimously voted number 1 / preferred wine beating many well know chateaux.

Still not too many people know that the Grand Poujeaux plateau in Moulis is in fact a first growth terroir. On this plateau with gravel sediments from the Gunz period, Château Branas Grand Poujeaux has all its vineyard blocks of Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Petit Verdot vines.

fine wines

This is one of the most famous names in Bordeaux and is renowned for making classic, structured claret that is true to the St Estèphe style. Perfect for current drinking.

James Suckling, the famous American wine critic, has just re-tasted the 1995 vintage of this wine and awarded it 97 points, saying that it has "...such purity and power yet it's reserved and beautiful." He goes on to say that it is "...one of the best Calon Segur s ever."

"I always loved this wine from the first time I tasted it in 1998. It has such purity and power, yet it's reserved and beautiful. It's one of the best Calon's ever. I drank a bottle with some friends in Manhattan last week and it was the wine of the evening. It was full-bodied with silky tannins and a focused and intense finish. Lots of currant and berry character and hints of dried spices. It's finally opening and giving real pleasure now like so many 1995 Bordeaux are now." 97/100 Score, James Suckling May 2015)

This beautiful 2003 exhibits a dense ruby/purple colour, a vigorous youthfulness, and plenty of mulberry, black currant and cherry fruit intermixed with notions of cedarwood, baking spices and roasted herbs. Ripe, medium to full-bodied, fresh, and precise, this wine is just hitting full maturity where it should remain for another 10-15 years. 93/100 Robert Parker

Ex-chateau stock

The 2006 Calon Segur was current winemaker Vincent Millet's first vintage. In many ways, you can see it as one of the last of the "old style" Calon Segur wines with a higher percentage of Merlot than nowadays (the 2006 consists of 33% Merlot), while I aver that the tannins are not as fine as they are nowadays. The Merlot component is vividly expressed on the nose with ravishing ripe red cherries, kirsch, and strawberry, just slightly smudged by the alcohol. The palate is medium-bodied with chewy tannin, quite sexy in style but it does not have the class of more recent vintages, and it seems to have remained tough up on the finish. It will loosen up with time, so afford these another 6-8 years in bottle. Tasted January 2016.

The 2017 Viña Real Gran Reserva is a classical Rioja Alavesa blend of 95% Tempranillo with 5% Graciano from their own vineyards. It matured in new and used barrels for two years and was racked every four months and no less than three in bottle. It has 13.95% alcohol, a pH of 3.54 and six grams of acidity. This is a textbook Gran Reserva; perhaps this year it shows a faster evolution, with notes of olives, with hints of mint, ripe but with acidity. It has a polished palate with fine-grained tannins and a very pleasant tactile sensation. It's ready but should also last. 30,000 bottles produced. It was bottled in March 2020. 94/100 Parker, 95/100 Vinous

Chanson is one of the major owners of Clos des Mouches with a vineyard of 4.5 hectares. This is a sunny terroir which benefits from an ideal location on the hill at the southern end of the vineyards of Beaune on a spur pointing towards Pommard. A plot of 2 hectares on the upper side of the hill is planted with Chardonnay on a limestone subsoil covered with sand.

If you never tasted a good red Beaune, then this would be a good place to start, thanks to the fragrant red-fruit and floral nose, then the ripe and suave palate, where the tannins are already so well integrated that almost all you see is the fruit character that dances over them. Long and delicate finish. 91/100 Burghound

The following wines from Oregon were all tasted recently, outstanding wines, highly recommended. Buy

USA, based in Oregon's Yamhill-Carlton AVA in the Willamette Valley, Résonance Wines is Maison Louis Jadot's first winery outside of Burgundy.

The vines were planted in 1981, are virtually all own-rooted and the oldest blocks are more than 26 years of age. Winemaker Brian Marcy joined the team in 2008. Three wines were produced: Resonance Vineyard Estate Pinot Noir, Pulse Oregon Pinot Noir, and a Resonance Vineyard White Blend.

Resonance, Decouverte Vineyard Chardonnay 2021 £39.00 per bottle £234.00 per 6 inc vat

The 2021 Chardonnay Découverte Vineyard from barrel already feels complete. It has deep scents of ripe apple and quince with accents of beeswax, elderflower, roasted almonds and flint. The palate is bursting with fragrant orchard fruit and alluring honeyed undertones. It has a satiny, mouth-coating texture balanced by energetic acidity, and it finishes with tremendous flavour and length. 95-97/100 Parker

Vineyard

Découverte Vineyard. The grapes are handpicked in the heart of the rolling landscape of the Dundee Hills wine region and defined by the volcanic Jory soils.

Winemaking: Classic Burgundian fermentation is followed by 16 months ageing in French oak barrels (30% new).

Resonance Vineyard Pinot Noir 2019 £45.00 per bottle £270.00 per 6 inc vat

The 2019 Résonance Vineyard Pinot Noir has deep aromas of wild blackberries, forest floor, mushrooms, and dark spices, continuing to unwind its aromatic nuances as it spends time in the glass. The medium-bodied palate is delicate yet concentrated, offering a harmonious structure, detailed flavours, and a long, ethereal finish. What a pretty expression! 96/100 Parker

Rhone

10 cases Marius D'OC Chapoutier 2022 £10.00 per bottle £120.00 case inc vat

Another through the roof value is the 2022 IGP Pays d'Oc Marius Grenache Syrah, with is a 60/40 mix of Syrah and Grenache that was brought up all in concrete tank, with no influence of oak whatsoever. This medium-bodied effort has tons of raspberry, pepper herbs, rose petal and earth in a shockingly elegant, layered, pretty style. This drink way past its humble price point and will dish out tons of pleasure for at least 2-3 years.

20 cases Cotes du Rhone Bio 2023 Domaine Chapoutier £17.00 per bottle £204.00 case inc vat

The 2023 Cotes du Rhône checks in as a mix of 60% Grenache and 40% Syrah that's brought up all in concrete tanks. It has a terrific bouquet of ripe dark fruits (cassis, blackberry), peppery herbs and hints of flowers in a supple, forward, and soft style that's already hard to resist. Nevertheless, it should keep for 2 to 3 years.

20 cases Cotes du Rhone 2021 Guigal £12.90 per bottle £154.80 case inc vat

10 cases Magnums 2020 £28.00 per mag £168.00 case inc vat

5 cases Halves 2020 £8.50 per half £102.00 case 12/1 inc vat

The medium to full-bodied 2021 Cotes du Rhone will see plenty of more time in tank, yet it's already drinking well, with hints of garrigue and black olives adding nuance to the blackberry and cherry fruit. Silky and clean, it's delightfully easy to drink. 90/100 WA

Marked by scents of cracked pepper and ripe cherries, the 2017 Crozes Hermitage is more concentrated and textured than the 2016. Medium to full-bodied, it finishes velvety, with hints of raspberries and liquorice. 91/100 RP

3 cases Vieux Telegraph 2011 CNDP £75.00 per bottle £900.00 case 12/1 inc vat
Showing beautifully on this occasion, the 2011 Chateau Neuf du Pape reveals a bit of bricking, with hallmark notes of iodine, sweet red cherries, and a delicate touch of fine leather. Medium to full-bodied and bolstered by soft tannins, it finishes long, with notes of salted liquorice. I wouldn't plan on holding it much longer, but it should please those looking for a mature bottle over the next few years.

Northern Rhone Red

2 cases Chapoutier Cote Rotie Neve 2018 £120.00 per bottle £720.00 case 6/1 inc vat
Chapoutier's 2018 Cote Rotie Neve features stunning scents of violets, purple raspberries and cassis. It's full-bodied, rich and creamy textured in the mouth, turning silky on the finish. Concentrated but elegant, it showcases the amazing potential of the Neve lieu-dit. 95-98/100 WA

6 bottles Hermitage Chave 2019 £3300.00 per 6 inc vat £550.00 per bt inc vat
As usual, the 2019 Hermitage remained largely as separate components at the time of my visit. Some pre-blending had occurred, so I tasted a combination of Beaugues and Péléal, as well as components from L'Ermite, Méal and Bessards. Uniformly full-bodied, concentrated and long, with rich, velvety tannins, dark-fruit flavours (cassis, blueberries, boysenberries) and hints of crushed stone and licorice, comparisons with 2003 aren't unreasonable. 97-100/100 WA

2 cases Chapoutier Hermitage Ermit 2021 £1495.00 per 6 inc vat 97/100 WA
2 cases Chapoutier Hermitage Pavillon 2020 £1495.00 per 6 inc vat 100/100 WA
Crushed stone, mint, blackberries and cassis all appear upon the nose of the 2020 Ermitage le Pavillon. The great vintages of these wines soak up the oak, like this one has. Full-bodied, concentrated and massive in scale, it's a mouthful of dark fruit flavours that gradually morph into something more savory on the long, silky-firm finish, adding notes of black olives and espresso. It's impressive, as it maintains a sense of elegance all along its path. 100/100 Robert Parker

The 2007 La Mission Haut Brion should be considered as one of the wines of the vintage, perhaps even outclassing the gaff across the road! It has an ebullient bouquet with vivid dark berry, cold, warm gravel and undergrowth scents that are very complex and beautifully defined. The palate is medium bodied with very fine tannin, crisp acidity, and a very precise structure, with superb tension on the finish. If you are seeking a 2007 Bordeaux, then this would undoubtedly be one of my picks. Buy.

Sauternes

3 cases Chateau Rieussec 2010 (Strong buy) £330.00 per 6 bottles £55.00 per bottle inc vat

The 2010 Rieussec now in bottle it has become a contender for the finest Sauternes of the vintage. It is blessed with a pure and lifted bouquet with ripe peach, nectarine and honey, hints of shaved ginger poke their head above the surface with aeration. It is very subtle. The palate is medium bodied with fine tannins, perfectly judged acidity, and convincing harmony. This is a sophisticated Sauternes with superb minerality and outstanding persistency. I will confess that I pinned this as "Yquem" and was both shocked and pleased when its identity was revealed. Go buy. 96/100 Wine Advocate. Drink now-2035.

15 cases Carmes de Rieussec 2017 bottles £288.00 per case 12 bottles £24.00 per bottle inc vat

Composed of 94% Semillon, 3% Sauvignon Blanc and 3% Muscadelle, the pale lemon-gold coloured 2017 Carmes de Rieussec comes bounding out of the glass with rambunctious scents of candied citrus peel, pineapple tart, green mango, and fresh apricots with hints of honeycomb, musk perfume and lime blossoms. The medium to full-bodied palate explodes with tropical and stone fruit flavours, offering seamless freshness and a long, honey-laced finish. Yum! 91/100 Robert Parker

Tasting notes.

A wine that slowly unfurls to offer fragrant orange blossoms, honeycomb, candied ginger scents with a core of lemon marmalade, also a hint of preserved citrus peel. The palate is light on its feet with zippy freshness lifting this well-knit sweetness, beautifully marbled with bright, vivacious citrus fruit and spice flavours, it finishes with long length and great depth.

The new 50-Year-Old Tawny Port is a field blend bottled with a bar-top cork in 2022 and with 158 grams of residual sugar. Mature, with dark chocolate nuances, this is rich, deep, and sensationally delicious. The concentration is exceptional too. Then, there's the long, long finish, filled with fruit and sugar. It is irresistible, in addition to being nuanced and complex. It's young enough so that it is never just a curiosity. The fruit is certainly not cracking. 97 pts Wine Advocate

Sherry

Manzanilla La Gitana En Rama bottling Hidalgo 2023 15%    £114.00 per 6 bottles inc vat    £19.00 per bottle.

Produced from 100% Palomino grapes grown on white albariza soils at Hidalgo's highest quality vineyards of Balbaina and Miraflores, La Gitana Manzanilla En Rama is sherry at its very best - unfinned and only lightly filtered free-run juice which has spent eight years in the solera. This Spring 2022 release is available in limited quantities (only 35 barrels of the solera are used) and can be considered the best value sherry in the world.

Notes

Intense, complex, and balanced on the nose, this En Rama is a crisp, citrusy, and salty wine, influenced by the proximity of the cellars in Sanlucar de Barrameda to the sea (only 300m away) as well as the altitude of the Balbaina vineyard (110m). Matured using the traditional 'Criaderas y Solera' process in American oak casks, under a layer of floor integrated by the yeasts.
